

English

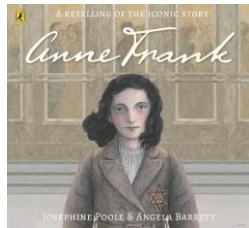

This first half of autumn term, our writing is based on the famous and compelling book called Anne Frank by Josephine Poole and Angela Barrett. This would also link to the history of World War 2.

Year 5 and 6 will be taught to write:

- formal and informal letters
- short descriptions
- extended diary entries
- obituary

The main outcome will be to create an informative newspaper article.

We will also be looking at different forms of poetry to end our writing this term linked to themes from the book.

PE

We will focus on team building exercises which are a good reminder of team work and working cooperatively, not just in sports but across the curriculum!

Autumn Term Curriculum Overview

Year 5 & 6 Autumn 1- 2020

We will ensure that Islamic knowledge is incorporated into the curriculum In Sha Allah.

Mathematics

We will focus on number skills in particular place value and the four operations. By the end of the half term Year 5 and 6 will be able to:

- Compare and order numbers up to a million and year 6 will compare further up to 10 million
- Revise reading and writing roman numerals up 1000
- Rounding to the nearest 100,000 and year 6 will be extended to round up to the nearest million.
- Completing the four operations and solving multi-step problems.

PSHE

This term, Year 5 and 6 will be covering the Emotions unit. We will be using role play and many different scenarios to uncover a range of emotions which in sha Allah will help everyone to share.

Science

We will be investigating evolution and inheritance this half term; looking at how our traits and genes are carried down to each generation and how new ones are formed due to different factors that have influenced change, which will give us a better understanding of how incredible Allah creations are.

Homework

Children will be receiving their spellings and homework on Fridays. This year children will receive homework on flip learning so please allow your child access to the internet in order to complete homework in their books. It will focus on the subjects that were covered that week in order to help reinforce their learning. It should be handed in by Tuesday each week.
